

The Week In Society.

A CARD-PLAYER'S REVERIE.
If life is but a gamble,
As sing our lyric bards,
Then life is but a well-worn
Deck of playing-cards.

Whenever you are wounded
By Cupid's piercing darts,
And play the part of lover,
Why then your suit is HEARTS.

And when your sweetheart swears
To you thro' life she'll cling,
There sparkles on her finger
A dazzling DIAMOND ring.

But man and wife will quarrel—
Ay, ay, then there's the rub!
Alas! you fain would smite
Each other with a CLUB.

At last the grim, grim reaper,
And then your grave is made,
And then the old grave-digger
Must needs employ a SPADE.
—Don M. Compton.
